

Conference at a Glance

NNAEMSA is excited to be able to provide you with excellent instructors and up-to-date training at this year's conference. Here's a glance of what we have lined up for you.

We are proud to have Norman E. McSwain, Jr, MD, FACS, NREMT-P present at this year's conference. Dr. McSwain is a Professor of Surgery and Director of Trauma at Tulane University School of Medicine, New Orleans. He is also Associate Trauma Director for the Level I Trauma Center at Charity Hospital New Orleans. He has spent more than 30 years with a major interest in trauma surgery, resuscitation recovery and pre-hospital care. He is author and coauthor of more than 317 articles, 35 audiovisuals, 25 books and book revisions and 93 book chapters. We are honored to have Dr. McSwain as a part of our conference.

Will Chapleau, Chief of Chicago Heights Fire Department will be presenting several topics, including National Incident Management and Controversies of Trauma Management. Mr. Chapleau has worked on ambulances, in trauma centers and has been an EMS educator for over 20 years. He has also published numerous texts and journal articles and has lectured all over North and South America, Europe, and Asia.

Don't miss our Response to Suicide pre-conference course taught by the Critical Illness and Trauma Foundation. Register early, space is limited!

Other returning favorites include: the Native Air Instructors and the ever popular Basic and Advanced Airway Lab courses; John Todaro, a phenomenal speaker who adds humor to his very motivational and informative presentations, will be presenting new courses this year; and Bob Waddell, an international EMS educator who brings over 25 years of experience to his courses. For a complete listing of speakers and presentations please visit our website.
